*Prices of wines present on the Polish market are gross retail prices (price of "shelf wine" suggested by the importer).

3.4 In the event of submission of samples of wine unavailable on the Polish market, the rule that €1.00 = PLN 10.00 shall apply. That is an averaged suggested price for a wine "on the shelf" after including all payments and importer's margin.

3.5 Every member of Jury board is grading the samples within the range of 0-100 points. Final grading is based on average of all of the grades given by all of the Jury board members. 30% of all samples, which scored the highest grades, are granted with the medal:

– Gold ENOEXPO® Medal – 5% of wines with the highest grade,

– Silver ENOEXPO® Medal – 10% of wines with the highest grade (next in line, after the ones which won a Gold Medal)

– Bronze ENOEXPO® Medal – 15% of wines with the highest grade (next in line, after the ones which won a Gold and Silver Medal).

Scoring which qualify each wine to an exact category is determined after the evaluation of all samples.

The tasting of wine samples is performed "at random." The Jury shall evaluate the wines on the basis of agreed criteria and the system of points to be credited included in the tasting card form. The completed forms constitute the archives and a permanent record of the course of the Competition.

3.6 The announcement of results will be held during the gala accompanying the ENOEXPO® Trade Fair (16-18.11.2016).

3.7 The Jury may fail to grant a medal in a given category.

3.8 The Jury may grant special awards and additional honours.

3.9 The Jury may fail to accept some wines in the Competition without the need to state a reason (fees will be returned).

3.10 The Jury is entitled to exclude a participant from the Competition who breaches its Rules, making it impossible for the other competitors to meet the conditions of the Competition. The Competition Commission will immediately notify the participant about the exclusion which applies to him. The notification is done in writing.

3.11 The session of the Jury is closed and its decisions shall be final.

3.12 If the wines submitted by one participant won several medals of the same colour (more than one wine won a gold/silver/bronze medal), organiser awards a participant by one statuette and the diplomas to each of winning wines.

3.13 The results of the Competition will be published on the website of the Organiser and sent to the branch press and wine associations with respect to the rules of the act of 26 October 1982 on education of sobriety and prevention of alcoholism (unified act: OJL of 2002 No. 147, item 1231).

3.14 The Participant whose wines are honoured by the ENOEXPO® 2016 Medals may publish the information about the fact and the graphic symbol of the medal in promotional materials.

The winners will receive 50 pieces of stickers for bottles with the graphic symbol of medal.

3.15 Awards which are not received during the gala accompanying the ENOEXPO® Trade Fair will be shipped to the participant only when the certain conditions are met:

– participant will contact the Organiser before the end of 30 days after the prize awards,

– participant will cover the costs of the shipping,

– participant will specify the terms and the shipping method.

3.16 The Participants whose wine is granted the Gold ENOEXPO® Medal in a given category shall obtain a 10% discount for a stall in the next edition of the ENOEXPO® Trade Fair (15-17 November 2017).

4. Final Provisions

4.1. Any changes to the Rules shall be done in writing or shall otherwise be null and void.

4.2 The Rules shall be announced to the public on the website of the Organiser.

4.3 The Organiser is entitled to cancel, change the date, extend or shorten the duration of the Competition at any time.
